Dated 10th February, 2021.

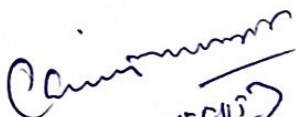

A report on Freshers' Day (2020-21)

Nitte Ignite- Freshers' Day 2020-21 was organized on 10th February, 2021 on a grand scale with much fanfare in Dr. Shivarama karanth open air theater at 10 A M. The program was arranged jointly by Student Council and Cultural Committee with the cooperation of the senior students. The program began with lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries. The invocation was rendered by Ms. Nandini of III sem B.Com. Mr. Shreenidhi of V sem BBA welcomed the dignitaries and the students. He narrated his experiences in the college and told that what the junior students can expect from the college.

The HoD of Commerce and Mgt., Prof. Dr. HA Raghavendra in his speech on the occasion lauded the senior students and said that the Freshers' Day is a good practice that is being practiced in our college by our students. He said that due to pandemic it could not be conducted initially as we had online classes. However, as the saying goes, "late better than never" he opined. He went on to say that this day goes down in the memory lane of the fresh students. He opined that this day fosters camaraderie among juniors and seniors. In turn, this helps youngsters to learn the lessons of working together for some cause. The programs like this paves way for principle of co operation i.e., "all for one and one for all."

The Principal, Dr. Prof. R. Shanti Iyer in her presidential address congratulated the senior students and Student Council and Cultural Committee, conveners and members as well and exhorted the students to do this kind of programs as they result in learning on the part of the students who involve in organizing them. She appreciated and lauded the efforts and zeal put forth by the senior students and coaxed the juniors to follow them. She said that all the students should work as ambassadors of the college to take the college to further level. This day is going to be Red letter Day and today's enjoyment keeps recurring in all stages of your lives, she added. She concluded her address by wishing them happy stay and happy learning and their stay in the college would certainly be fruitful for their entire lives.

The program was followed by wonderful, spectacular and stellar performance by both the junior as well as senior students. The students and all the staff enjoyed the program. A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Suhas of V Sem B.Com. The day was enjoyed. The Cultural Committee Convener, Prof. R Lakshmi, Student Council Convener, Prof. Chiranjeevi and members of the committees and all the staff were present.
